The following five steps will help guide you when working with a financial professional to create a financial strategy for a loved one living with dementia.

1. UPDATE THE ESTATE PLAN
   Ensure you and the financial professional have a complete view of your loved one’s assets, how they are managed, and their estimated value.

   THIS INCLUDES:
   - Real estate
   - Investments and brokerage accounts
   - Retirement plans
   - Household items

   YOU MAY ALSO WANT TO:
   - Review how property is titled (with an attorney) and ask whether will, trust, and beneficiary designations should be updated

2. IDENTIFY ALL INCOME SOURCES
   Review your loved one’s income sources, insurance policies, and bank accounts. It is vital to know all account logins and passwords and the location of all important documents.

   INCOME:
   - Employment income
   - Pensions
   - Veterans benefits
   - Annuities
   - Social Security
   - Social Security Disability Income (SSDI)
   - Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
   - Retirement accounts (IRA, 401(k))
   - Reverse mortgage
   - Other income (e.g., rental property)

   INSURANCE:
   - Health insurance (does it cover dementia care?)
   - Life insurance
   - Long-term care insurance
   - Medicare
   - Medigap

   IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS:
   - Titles and deeds
   - Beneficiary designations
   - Trust documents
   - Power of attorney (finances)
   - Power of attorney (health care)
   - Standard will
   - Living will/medical directives
   - Birth certificate
   - Passport
   - State ID/driver’s license
   - Social Security card
   - Marriage license
   - Vehicle registration

   BANK ACCOUNTS:
   - Checking
   - Savings
   - Certificates of deposit
3. LEARN YOUR LOVED ONE’S INTENTIONS
Giving your loved one peace of mind about his or her future is a wonderful gift. It’s important to have a conversation to understand your loved one’s wishes and how to ensure they are fulfilled.

CONSIDER ASKING:
- Who your loved one wants as the agent, or durable power of attorney, to make decisions if he or she is no longer able to
- Where the person wants to live as the disease progresses (assisted living, nursing home, etc.)

CONSIDER WORKING WITH AN ELDER LAW ATTORNEY TO:
- Create a power of attorney for finances
- Create a power of attorney for health care
- Create an advance directive regarding health care and end-of-life decisions

4. ENSURE FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS ARE BEING MET
While caregiving, your loved one’s comfort is your first priority. Bills and other details can get lost in the shuffle, so it’s important to work with your loved one’s financial professional to ensure finances are properly managed and all bills are being paid on time.

- If you’re appointed as durable power of attorney, ensure your loved one authorizes you to speak with the financial professional
- Consider working with a daily money management service
- Consider looking into the Social Security Representative Payment Program
- If you’re not appointed as durable power of attorney, or don’t wish to handle that responsibility, ensure a trusted person who understands what it means to be a fiduciary serves in this role; a fiduciary is legally bound to place the interests of the person in need ahead of his or her own

5. DISCUSS CARE MANAGEMENT
Work with a financial professional to discuss how to finance your loved one’s care. Also, talk about:

- Whether home modifications are necessary for a loved one determined to stay in his or her residence as long as possible
- Working with a geriatric care manager
- Meals on Wheels and other community services
